U.N. Accepts Red Proposal Asking Post-Truce Talk

Rejects Suggestion To Discuss Other Far East Questions

MUNSAN, Korea (AP) — The United Nations today accepted a Communist proposal to begin negotiating a Korean settlement within three months after an armistice but rejected a Red suggestion that the talks cover Far Eastern questions beyond Korea.

The Allies endorsed two-thirds of a Red-proposed three-point agenda for a high level conference, but told the Communists they would discuss no Asian question other than that of Korea.

The U. N. Command to discuss (1) withdrawal of foreign troops from Korea; (2) peaceful settlement of the Korean controversy and (3) other Korean questions related to peace.

The first two points were proposed by the Reds last Wednesday. The Communists also suggested that the high-level conference settle "other problems in Asia related to the Korean question." Presumably this could include such thorny subjects as Formosa.

Red Cross Seeks $18,280 Here

Campaign Will Be Launched March 3

A goal of $18,280 will be sought by the Salem Chapter of the Red Cross in the 1952 campaign which will open Monday, March 3.

This announcement was made today by Blair K. Patterson, chairman, who will be assisted by Co-Chairman Robert Heddleston.

This year's quota is $215 less than last year's because the Red Cross nursing service was discontinued.

Patterson explained that of the current goal $12,720 will be retained for the work of the Salem Red Cross organization, while $5,560 will be forwarded to national headquarters.

Appointment of co-workers for the March campaign will be appointed probably sometime next week. Various participating organizations are to be contacted by letter next week.

The drive will continue most of next month.

Lie Detector Test Arranged For Mother

A 25-year-old East Liverpool mother faces a lie-detector test today in Cleveland in connection with the death of her 4-day-old illegitimate daughter.

Escapée For 13 Years, Cleveland Captured

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — A former Cleveland man who escaped from the Ohio State Reformatory at Mansfield 13 years ago, was captured here yesterday.

William J. Dennis, 37, a paint salesman, told police inspector Edward F. Parker he escaped from the Ohio institution in 1939 after serving five years on an armed robbery charge.

Film Writer Dead

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Death Thursday night ended the film writing career of Philip Epstein, 42, who with his brother, Julius, collaborated on such pictures as "Casablanca," "The Man Who Came to Dinner," "Arsenic and Old Lace" and "The Male Animal." The last named won an Academy Award for the Epstein brothers.

Strong Winds Leave Minor Damage Here

Strong winds, rain and snow hit wide areas in the eastern part of the country today after a wind storm which struck a five-state area last night killed two persons and injured 17 others.

The Salem district, which did not feel the full blast of the heavy winds, escaped with relatively little damage, Ohio Bell Telephone officials said. However, property damage and power failures were reported in many other cities throughout Ohio, Indiana, West Virginia, Pennsylvania and Maryland.

In Ohio hundreds of street lights were knocked out of service as the strong winds blew down lines and poles. At least two high school basketball games were cancelled because of power failure.

The Dayton area was blasted by an 86-mile per hour wind but not much property damage resulted. In Cincinnati, a 60-mile an hour gale loosened 50 feet of metal flashing on the roof of the Big Four Building. The loose metal swayed precariously on the 12-story structure until firemen lowered it to the ground.

TV Antennas Hit

The biggest casualty throughout the state appeared to be television antennas. Hundreds were blown down in East Liverpool, Columbus, Springfield and elsewhere. Plate glass windows were broken in Zanesville, Columbus and Cincinnati.

No deaths were reported in Ohio as due to the storm but one woman was injured when a telephone pole fell into the path of her auto near Plain City.

The storm wrecked a light airplane at Springfield's municipal airport and blew the roof off a small hanger. In Akron, chimneys and utility poles were toppled and trolley lines there and in Cleveland were blown down. Little other damage was reported in Cleveland.

Lisbon Student Wins Dental Poster Contest

LISBON—Richard Scroggs, 13-year-old eighth grade student at Lincoln School, was awarded first prize in the Corydon Palmer Dental Society poster contest for students in Columbiana, Mahoning and Trumbull Counties. First prize award is $8.

Dr. W. B. Challis, Lisbon chairman, said he plans to take Richard to the society's award banquet Tuesday night at the Elks Club in Youngstown.

Lisbon students from the first to eighth grades entered 18 posters. Four others received honorable mention awards of $1. Dr. Challis said.

Young Scroggs is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Scroggs of the Elkton Rd. Mrs. Dorothy Young is elementary art teacher.

RECKLESS DRIVER FINED

James A. Pearson, 18, of 166 Rose Ave., arrested at 11:50 p.m. Friday on Franklin Ave. and charged with reckless driving, was fined $15 and costs by Mayor Harry M. Vincent today.

Young Scroggs is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Scroggs of the Elkton Rd. Mrs. Dorothy Young is elementary art teacher.

Realty Tax Payments Amount To $483,714

Columbiana County Treasurer Vincent C. Judge said Friday that countywide taxes for the first half of 1951. The deadline for payment without a 10-per-cent penalty is Feb. 23.

The full-year tax bill is $2,381,920, he said, making the first half charge $1,195,500. Payment opened Jan. 21.

Committee Says VA Involved In GI Bill Fraud

Its Employees Took Graft From Program, Congressmen Claim

WASHINGTON (AP) — A congressional committee said today "an excessive number" of Veterans Administration employees accepted "bribes, gifts, unusual loans, gratuities, services and ownership in schools" in connection with educational programs under the GI Bill of Rights.

These employees, the committee said, yielded to temptations of "certain unscrupulous schools and individuals."

The committee, a special house group headed by Rep. Tague (D-Tex.), made its comments in a lengthy report which recommended writing of a new law to extend educational benefits to veterans of the Korean conflict.

Among the conclusions were these:

1. For several years, new schools started after 1944 were permitted to levy "unreasonable and excessive charges" which the government paid.
2. Some schools falsified cost data and attendance records, overcharged for books and tools, and billed the VA for students not enrolled.
3. At the college level the training program has been carried out successfully.
4. Many veterans took courses "for the obvious purpose of securing subsistence payments rather than a bona fide interest in training."
5. "A minority of veterans have conspired" to obtain benefits to which they were not entitled and "engaged extensively in the practice of selling or pawning the tools issued them for training purposes" at government cost.
6. The Veterans Administration did not exercise adequate control over "irresponsible veterans."
7. A majority of states have carried out effective approval programs but there has been "serious failure in some states, particularly Pennsylvania."
8. Many VA employees owned interest in or derived profit from schools under contract with the VA.
9. Many institutions "in all fields of education took advantage of the lack of regulation and supervision to adopt unreasonable supply requirements and excessive charge practices."
10. A majority of the seven and a half million veterans who availed themselves of VA training benefited from the program.

15,000 Cheer For Eisenhower In Colorful New York Rally

NEW YORK (AP)—Fifteen thousand cheering, singing "Ike" rooters today told General Dwight D. Eisenhower they want him to be the nation's next president.

Undaunted by his absence in Europe, they came from as far away as Texas and as close by as Brooklyn to say it.

Civic Ire Aroused By Chicago Killing

CHICAGO (AP) — Civic and political leaders, aroused by city-wide public indignation over the cold blooded killing of a ward leader, plan an all-out war aimed to destroy hoodlum political power.

The shotgun slaying Wednesday night of Charles Gross apparently was politically motivated. Since his murder there has been an ever-swelling storm of civic outrage.

Gross, 56, acting Republican committeeman of the West Side 31st Ward, was a candidate for the post in the April 8 primary. He was not one of the city's top GOP leaders. But his brutal slaying in gangland style has stirred front-ranking politicians in both Republican and Democratic parties.

Chicago's four major daily newspapers in editorials demanded both parties purge gangster elements from their ranks. The Sun-Times offered $15,000 reward for arrest and conviction of Gross' slayers under its "secret witness" plan. The Tribune offered a reward of $10,000.

It didn't get under way until after 11 p.m. and it lasted until one o'clock in the morning.

The crowd didn't fill Madison Square Garden—another three or four thousand people gathered in—but Eisenhower leaders were overjoyed at the turnout.

"Without precedent," was the comment of Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. (R-Mass.), manager of the Eisenhower campaign. "Usually, we have to work to fill the Garden at the end of the campaign. Now we're doing it with our man 3,000 miles away," he said.

The midnight "Serenade to Eisenhower" was broadcast locally by radio, went as far as Chicago over television channels and was short-waved to France where the general heads the North Atlantic Nations' military organization.

However, the serenade did not get to Eisenhower's ears. Aides at the general's headquarters near Paris said he was sleeping and did not get up to listen to the radio.

Aviatix Jacqueline Cochran, a co-sponsor of the rally with Tex McCrary, is to fly to Paris later today with movies of the affair, the first of a series planned for different parts of the country. The next will be in Fort Worth, Texas.

Eisenhower will see the rally movies on Sunday, the audience was told.

Germany Upsets Hopes Of NATO

High Price To Aid West Stalls Plans

BONN, Germany (AP)—Allied officials said today West German high priced demands for joining Western defense will set back a peace settlement with the ex-enemy and stall plans for welding German troops into a six-nation European army.

The price includes an end to Allied occupation, full sovereignty for Germany, an equal voice in western strategic councils and freedom for many German war criminals.

The restive parties in Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's government hung these conditions on their approval last night of Adenauer's proposal to recruiting 300,000 to 400,000 troops for Western defense.

The Bundestag (lower house) agreed to it only by the slim margin of 204 to 156.

The vote was taken on the principle of the proposal and does not mean immediate conscription of soldiers. That can come only after Germany agrees to a peace settlement, joins the European army and votes formal ratification of a defense bill ordering formation of troops and raising the money for defense.

Even with the "price tags" attached, the vote of approval was considerably smaller than that given Adenauer last month for ratification of German's entry into the Schuman Plan to pool her coal and steel with five other Western European nations.

The powerful Socialists fought the army plan tooth and nail. The vote revealed a sharply split parliament reflecting sorely-divided public opinion.

Burglary May Be Linked With Murder

YOUNGSTOWN (AP)—Police today were trying to determine whether there was any connection between the hatchet death of an aged carpenter and an attempt to break into the office of the old man's physician.

The carpenter, 74-year-old George W. Brantner was found hacked to death in his coal bin Jan. 28, with a gory hatchet at his side.

His physician, Dr. Arnold Goudsmith told police yesterday someone pried loose a glass door panel in his office, apparently Thursday night. No one had been in the office, however.

The physician had cared for Brantner and now is treating Brantner's daughter, Mrs. William E. Brantner, 51, who had a heart attack shortly after his death.

Workers Hold Private Rites For King George

Air Of Death Hovers Over Family Estate At Sandringham

SANDRINGHAM, Eng. (AP) — Humble villagers filed through their hushed country church today to pay last homage to the man they called squire—King George VI.

Farmers, carpenters, woodmen and servants sorrowfully stopped before the candle-lit bier to look for the last time on the coffin of their sovereign and friend.

Inside the big mansion nearby, where the king was born and where he died, Queen Elizabeth II—proclaimed throughout the land yesterday as the new ruler of the British realm—remained closeted in deep mourning with her mother and sister and others of the royal family.

The new queen's flag flew high over Sandringham House. It was raised there yesterday when finally she reunited with her bereaved family after first performing the first heavy and solemn duties of her queenly station. Her father's standard which had flown over the mansion until his quiet death in sleep Wednesday, now covers his oaken coffin.

Body Lay In Church

The body of the fallen monarch lay in the nave of the little graystone 16th Century church of St. Mary Magdalene, 200 yards down a winding garden path over which it had been carried last night in the eerie moonlight from the big residence.

A village policeman stood guard at the wrought iron gate near the chapel. Only the 300 odd villagers whom he could recognize as the King's own workers were admitted. During the morning, mainly the wives came.

The new queen had asked that work at Sandringham to on today just as any other day. The men stayed on their job—tending the animals and gardens and other duties on the vast estate—except for the King's gamekeepers, who kept a silent watch over the coffin.

In their Robin Hood-like green buckskin jackets and dark knee breeches, the game keepers took two-hourly watches, four at a time around the royal castle.

Stand Death Watch

Some of the game keepers had stood the same grim watch over the body of the late King's father, George V, when he died here. And some had played with the late King when he romped over the estate as a boy.

Inside the church, a carpet had been laid to hush the shuffle of feet past the King's coffin. A strong, warm sun sent shafts of multi-colored lights through the stained glass windows. Four candles flickered at each corner of the bier. On the coffin was a silver plate engraved "Albert Frederick Arthur George Windsor, born 1895 died 1952."

There was a warm fragrance of flowers—roses, apple blossom, hyacinths, carnations and lily-of-

Battle Hymn Of The Republic

A Southern Firehall Tune Becomes The Marching Song Of The Union Army

To pass the time between fires, smoke-eaters of Richmond, Virginia, sang everything in the book . . . and some things that weren't in the book. Then, in 1855, a local musician named John W. Staffe composed a tune just for the firemen. But Staffe left the firemen to supply their own words.

The moving tune swept out of the firehall like a prairie holocaust. In less time than it takes to hitch a fire-horse everybody was singing it . . . to everybody's words. It was even taken up at camp meetings and sung to the words of age-old hymns. The tune had swept the nation in 1859 when everybody was talking about the hanging of John Brown . . . the eccentric abolitionist who, with help of his sons, tried to free all the slaves in America. John Brown became a by-word. The rope marks were still on his neck when he became a part of the firehall tune. "They hanged

John Brown to a sour apple tree." . . . "John Brown's body lies a-moldering in the grave" . . . or any other John Brown phrases that met the fancy of the vocalist.

In 1861 Boston's gifted writer Julia Ward Howe rode as a guest of Abraham Lincoln through Union camps along the Potomac. There wasn't a soldier in the camp who wasn't singing about Mr. Brown to the firehall tune. And it wasn't uncommon for an enthusiastic Yankee to add "Glory Hallelujah!"

The tune was still ringing in Mrs. Howe's ears when she retired to her Washington hotel room. She tried to sleep. Still she heard it. A splendid tune. But those silly words! She got up from her bed and wrote her own verses and the Union Army took them up as their marching song to the firehall tune.

His eyes have seen the glory
Of the coming of the Lord;
He is tramping out the vintage
Where the grapes of wrath are stored;
He hath loosed the fateful lightning
Of His terrible swift sword;
His truth is marching on.

Glory! Glory! Hallelujah!
His truth is marching on.

I have seen Him in the watchfire
Of a hundred circling camps;
They have builded Him an altar
In the evening dews and damps;
I have read His righteous sentence
By the dim and flaring lamps;
His day is marching on.

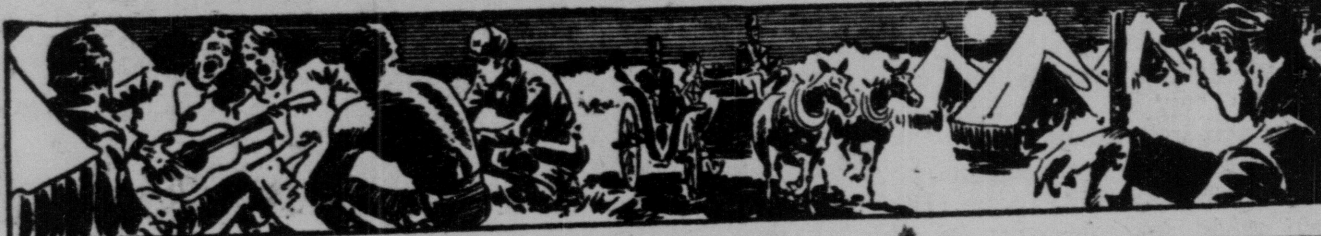

Glory! Glory! Hallelujah!
His day is marching on.

He has sounded forth the trumpet
That shall never call retreat,
He is sifting out the hearts of men
Before His judgment seat;
O, be swift my soul, to answer Him
Be jubilant, my feet;
Our God is marching on.

Glory! Glory! Hallelujah!
Our God is marching on.

In the beauty of the lilies,
Christ was born across the sea,
With a glory in His bosom
That transfigures you and me,
As He died to make men holy,
Let us die to make men free;
While God is marching on.

Glory! Glory! Hallelujah!
While God is marching on.

Remus Rehfeld of Kansas City, Mo. will speak. There will be no prayer meeting in the local church.

Confident Living

By DR. NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

Don't Worry About Money

"I'M WORRIED sick about money," writes one of our readers. "It is the one thing that frustrates me at every turn. Have you some suggestions?"

Since I receive many such letters, I have worked out some techniques which quite a few people have put into effect with excellent results.

Of first importance is the fact that you will never correct your money situation while in a state of worry. You need to think creatively, and it is impossible to develop creative thoughts out of an agitated mind. Therefore ask the good Lord to give you a quiet mind through which He can send answers to your money problems. The ideas that turn want into plenty come from the deeper levels of the mind. Mental quietness and assurance stimulate creative thought processes.

Dr. Peale

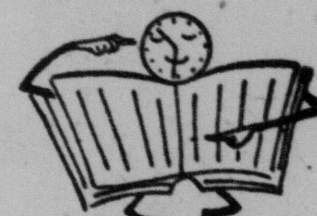

ALSO REMIND yourself of the great practical truth that God can and will supply all your needs out of His vast abundance. If only a little trickle has been coming through to you from God's storehouse of prosperity, it may be that something negative in you prevents the supply ducts from being fully opened. Perhaps you are thinking lack. There is a curious law that if you think lack, you tend to create a condition of lack. The solution is to shift your thought pattern to one of abundance. With all of your force, repel lack thoughts and practice abundance thoughts. Stop visualizing a condition of lack and start visualizing a condition of abundance. In ways that will amaze you, your needs will begin to be satisfied. The Bible tells us that God will supply all our needs. Visualize Him as doing that, and soon you will know how to cooperate with Him and bring about conditions of supply.

Read all inspirational literature you can get your hands on. Read the life stories of people in like situations who utilized some simple ideas to improve their financial condition. Do not dismiss such success stories on the false argument that you cannot have a similar experience or that there was something unique about these people. They found an out from money problems and so can you. Ask your librarian for inspirational, self-help literature. I recommend the non-profit, inspirational monthly magazine Guideposts published at Pawling, New York, as one of the best such periodicals. It is filled each month with stories of people who have solved not only money problems, but all kinds of problems.

A FRIEND of mine having money problems hit upon a unique plan, and it worked. He called his family together, told them the budget was pretty tight and explained the financial situation in detail. The family themselves organized into a Board of Directors, worked out an annual budget and pledged themselves to stick to it. Every item of expense came before the family Board of Directors. It was a family budget, family spent. They worked out a plan whereby if Mary had a pair of shoes last month, John gets a new shirt this month, Bill a pair of slacks next month.

Everybody shared—everybody sacrificed, but that wasn't all. At every family director's meeting, they not only planned, but they laid all their bills on the table. Then they bowed in prayer and asked God for a definite plan of financing. They made a sound system of payment, of economy,

Gladys Wright Becomes Bride Of Cpl. Arthur William Votaw

IN A GOWN of ivory slipper satin accented with Chantilly lace, Miss Gladys Ruth Wright became the beautiful bride of Cpl. Arthur William Votaw in a candlelight service at 7:30 p.m. Friday in the sanctuary of the First Presbyterian Church.

The simple beauty of palms, greenery and grape ivy were lighted at the chancel and altar by the glow from 30 tapers in candelabra. Tapers also marked each window.

Many friends and relatives of the couple witnessed the exchange of vows and rings between the daughter of D. Clyde Wright of S. Lincoln Ave. and the late Mrs. Wright, and the son of Mrs. Mary Votaw of N. Madison Ave. and the late Denton Votaw.

Mr. Wright gave his daughter in marriage and Rev. George S. Wilson performed the ceremony. Miss Anna P. Cook, organist played "Oh Promise Me," "Through the Years," "At Dawning," "Clair de Lune," "To the Evening Star," "I Love You Truly," "Always" and Greig's "I Love Thee" in nuptial prelude. As the couple knelt at the altar she played "The Lord's Prayer."

Attractively Gowned Chantilly lace over satin formed the bodice of the bride's gown. An off-the-shoulder effect was achieved with scalloped lace attached in a V to a built-up neckline of nylon net. Satin-covered buttons defined the back closing, and the sleeves, buttoned at the wrist, were long and pointed.

Pleats gave a belted effect at the waist and the full skirt terminated in a court train. The bride's handkerchief was carried by her mother at her wedding. She also wore her mother's pearls and her paternal grandmother's wedding ring. The pearl earrings she wore were the gift of the groom.

A Chantilly lace bonnet trimmed with simulated orange blossoms and seed pearls, framed her face and held in place her finger tip veil of French illusion. Her arm bouquet of white roses was showered with hyacinth blossoms and white satin ribbon.

Leading the bridal procession was Patricia Jeanne Sweetzer, little cousin of the bride. From her basket of posies she scattered snapdragons down the aisle. Her dress of powder blue slipper satin was styled with a high lace-trimmed neckline and a ruffle formed the sleeves. The skirt, long and full, was caught up in front with small nosegays of pink forget-me-nots. The gathered belt was fastened in back with a large bow centered with the same flowers. Forget-me-nots formed the halo for her hair.

Attired In Blue

Mrs. Fred Sweetzer Jr., cousin of the bride and matron of honor also wore powder blue slipper satin. The bodice was fitted, and handcovered buttons went from mandarin collar to waist in the front. The cap sleeves were pointed. Small satin bows dotted the bouffant skirt and cuffs topped matching mitts. Pink carnations were caught up in braid at the back of her blue satin halo. Pink carnations, with pansies and daisies encircled with lace, made up her colonial bouquet.

Miss Patricia Votaw, sister of the groom, wore satin in a pink shade. A V-neckline, buttons and pointed cap sleeves styled the fitted bodice and the skirt was full fashion. Her cap was of pink satin and her bouquet was patterned after Mrs. Sweetzer's. Albert Votaw served his brother as best man. Ushers were Karl Wright, brother of the bride, Fred Sweetzer, her cousin, and James Sandrey and Robert Balsley, brother-in-law of the groom.

For her son's wedding Mrs. Votaw chose a grey crepe dress with black accessories and a corsage of red roses. Mrs. Winifred Trewitz, aunt of the bride, wore navy blue crepe with floral print bodice. Her accessories were black, and daisies and roses were combined in her corsage.

Reception Held

The newlyweds greeted more than 100 friends and relatives at a reception in the church parlors. People came from Canton, Alliance, Salem, Bergholz, Carrollton, Harlem Springs, Cleveland, Columbus, Ontario, Canada, Minerva, Beaver, Pa. and Hanoverton.

Mrs. Robert Rheutan arranged the white satin and net-covered table. Centered was a bouquet of white carnations and snapdragons, lighted by tapers in three-branch silver candelabra. Ivy draped from the table edge was caught up with white roses and the three-tiered wedding cake was encircled with ribbon and hyacinths.

Presiding at the guest book was Mrs. Edythe Santee. Mrs. Paul Holwick, Mrs. James A. Pidgeon Jr. and Mrs. Lucille Applegate assisted in serving the guests.

For her honeymoon trip the bride traveled in a pink checked suit with pink and black accessories and a pink rose corsage. Both Cpl. and Mrs. Votaw graduated from Salem High School. The groom was employed at the Mullins Manufacturing Corp. before entering the service. He is now a surgical technician with the army and has been stationed at Murphy General Hospital at Waltham, Mass. After their wedding trip the corporal will report to California for overseas duty in the Far East Command. His bride will reside with her father.

Following the rehearsal Friday evening in the church the bridal party were entertained at a party in the Wright home.

Phyllis Toot Married To Tony Delmont

CANDLELIGHT made the setting for the lovely open church wedding of Miss Phyllis Toot and Tony Delmont Thursday evening at the Assembly of God Tabernacle. Rev. Clarence Hahn officiated at the single ring ceremony.

Miss Toot is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Toot of RD 5, Salem, and Mr. Delmont is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Florie Delmont of Berlin Center.

Nuptial melodies were provided by the organist, Mrs. Harold Barnes. She played "Beyond the Sunset" and "Always," and accompanied Mrs. Clarence Hahn who sang "I Love You Truly."

The bride wore a navy blue and white checked suit with matching accessories and had a corsage of red roses. The couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Demes. Mrs. Demes wore a brown suit and yellow roses. The bride's mother was attired in navy blue and the groom's mother in brown. Both had white carnations.

After the wedding a reception for the wedding party and immediate families was held at the groom's home.

After a honeymoon trip to Minnesota the couple will live at the home of the groom's parents in Berlin Center. Mr. Delmont is a garage mechanic there. The new Mrs. Delmont attended Greenford High School and her husband attended Berlin Center High School.

75 Grangers Enjoy Friday Program

SEVENTY-five members and guests were present at the meeting of Willow Grove Grange Friday evening and enjoyed an interesting program. The lecturer, Mrs. Donald Sanor was in charge of the program which featured a variety program of music provided by Mrs. George Balta, accordion; Mrs. Herman Wooley, drums; Arlin Fultz, mandolin and Mrs. Arlin Fultz, piano. They were guests of the grange.

Several members of the grange took part in a poem "February Reminiscences. Miss Mathilda Umbach gave a reading "Grandpa's Valentine." A duet, "Mocking Bird Hill" was sung by Sandy Sherwood and Donnette Sanor. An "Eloquence Relay" was a stunt. Dwayne Votaw of Salem Grange was guest speaker. He gave a delegate report from State Grange.

The next meeting will be Feb. 22, at 8:30.

Local School Teachers Feted By Mrs. Dolansky

Mrs. Joseph Dolansky entertained the teachers of McKinley School and their guests Monday evening at the new home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. Hill Hartman, RD 2, Minerva.

A Valentine theme prevailed throughout the party including a red and white tablecloth and red and white carnations. Lunch was served by Mrs. Hartman assisted by her daughter.

A variety of card games were played. Mr. Maurice Michaud, amateur photographer from Columbiana, amused the guests by taking candid shots of them.

Birth Reports

Son, to Mr. and Mrs. Dale Hull of Salineville, Friday, at the City Hospital.

Daughter, to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence McNutt of 685 Arch, today, at the City Hospital.

Son, to Mr. and Mrs. Donald Reeder of Hanover, Thursday, at the Central Clinic.

Son, to Mr. and Mrs. Marvin McNeely of RD 4, Salem, Thursday, at the Central Clinic.

Son, to Mr. and Mrs. Russell Zeppernick of Sebring, Friday, at the Central Clinic.

Coffee stains are quickly cleaned from the inside of pots and glass coffee makers by thoroughly washing them in a baking soda solution. Use one tablespoon to a cup of water.

Cub Scouts Are Versatile Bunch

WHETHER it be National Scout Week or not, the Cub Scouts of Pack 5 of the Presbyterian Church are quite adept at showing their versatility and showmanship.

The boys of the Cub Pack have taken to craftsmanship like a duck takes to water and the net result has been several entertaining programs for their parents and other interested adults.

Two recent programs were a puppet show and a make-believe interplanetary space ship stunt which only boys could dream up. The above photo shows some of the boys with puppets they made, and at right, a scene from the Buck Rogers planet show.

Lionel Smith is cubmaster, assisted by Sam Wald.

Girl Scout Council Adds New Members

MRS. FREDERICK Barchhoff Jr., president of the Girl Scout Council, welcomed two new members at the Thursday board meeting.

Mrs. Stanley Starke, treasurer and Mrs. Norman Pedersen, leader representative.

Mrs. F. L. Blevins was appointed by the president as a new member of the membership nominating committee to fill the unexpired term of Mrs. Orien Naragon.

The board emphasis this year is on "Training" and representatives will be sent to various places for training. Dates will be announced. Mrs. Joseph Greenwood told of the completion of cooking classes by members of seven Girl Scout troops. Miss Wilma Schulte, Gas Co. economist, was the teacher.

The cooking trainees will entertain at a tea from 2 to 4 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 17 at the American Legion hall for mothers, leaders and board members.

This year, March 12, marks the 40th anniversary of Girl Scouting. Forty new volunteers are needed to carry forward the scouting program. Anyone interested is asked to contact the scout office.

The Girl Scout Council plans to purchase primitive camping equipment so that Senior Girl Scouts can enjoy that outside activity. The Seniors will attend Camp Sandananda in Canton for training in pioneer camping, the date to be announced.

Camp Merrydale is filled to capacity during the camping season, leaving no time for Senior Scouts to camp there, so the other camp is being substituted.

CLUB MEETS WEDNESDAY

The Get Together Club met Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Herbert Jacobson of W. Pershing St. Prizes in 500 were awarded to Mrs. Tyler Jacobson, Mrs. Mayme Haines and Mrs. Rocco Circoasta. Lunch was served by the hostess. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Leonard Perkins of W. Pershing.

LATEST of the Democratic hopefuls to have a boomlet started in his behalf is Sen.
Robert S. Kerr of Oklahoma. He is but one among many.

South Carolina's Gov. Byrnes was pointing with pride a few days ago to Sen. Richard B. Russell of Georgia. Senator Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, of course, is already in business, with delegates running in his behalf.

Also half set up in business are Sen. Brien McMahon of Connecticut and Sen. Joseph C.
O'Mahoney of Wyoming, also the presiding officer in the Senate, Vice President Alben Barkley, not to mention Gov. Adlai Stevenson and Chief Justice Vinson.

All these hats have been thrown into the ring just in case the hat belonging to Harry Truman is not thrown in—but in that regard something of the utmost significance has happened in New Hampshire.

Mr. Truman became an official candidate in New Hampshire on Feb. 6—as official as Gen. Eisenhower, Sen. Taft and Harold Stassen. From now on, there is no room for further discussion on his intentions. The subject is closed. Mr. Truman is running for convention delegates in the first state to have a primary.

the Office of Price Stabilization with an unbroken back.

If Georgia's Ellis Arnall now can perform
the same trick, the country will begin to suspect hidden wires and mirrors. It wouldn't have to look far.

The reason DiSalle is still up and around
and the reason Arnall, who thinks of himself
a comer—he won't be 45 till next month—is willing to tackle the job is becoming obvious.

With few exceptions, prices are bump-ing along below their ceilings. If the Soviet Union were to release a crateful of doves a day for a fortnight, there would be more interest in price floors than in price ceilings.

In the fewest possible words, the Office
of Price Stabilization is a good place to be.

Former Gov. Arnall speaks of himself as being "tagged" for a thankless job, which could be true if the Russians helped to keep the defense boom going.

But it is more likely to be true that he calculated his prospects of being available for duty in the event Harry Truman is renominated and re-elected and moved into a strategic position.

Cause And Corruption

SECRETARY of Agriculture Brannan says that if the "Good Lord himself" had been running the Commodity Credit Corp. there still would have been the funny business with stored grain at public expense.

The secretary goes on to explain that the Department of Agriculture did everything it could to clear up the mess as soon as it learned what was going on; but that there simply was no way to keep the fast-dollar boys
from taking a chance on cleaning up $200 million.

Here is an aspect of big government that will bear looking into if government ever comes under the control of people who believe in locking the barn doors before the horse is stolen.

One of the prime causes of corruption in public position is temptation. The very existence of Reconstruction Finance Corp. made eventual misuse of its funds a certainty. The very conception of a policy of holding surplus grain off the market invites not only mishandling of the commodity at public expense
but the raising of still greater surpluses to be mishandled.

Queen Bess

THE WORST conclusion anyone could jump
to under present circumstances is that Britain's belief in guineas bringing the commonwealth good luck is silly.

It isn't silly.
Psychology has more to do with British problems of the moment than politics or economics, because it is at the bottom of politics and economics.

If something could give a fillip to British belief in British resourcefulness, it would have more effect than all the billions the United States might pump into the sagging lion.

Young Queen Bess might be the means of doing it—not because of anything she could say but because her subjects believe that queens bring them luck.

Society is held together by beliefs. When it starts to fall apart, the trouble usually can be traced to the spreading of doubt.

The British doubt that they can pull themselves out of the financial morass which was left after two world wars had trampled down their prospects. King George VI, for all his goodness, became almost a symbol of their own despair. They have a new ruler now.

Their Queen Bess is anything but a symbol of despair.

Volunteer UMT

Pentagon Backs Vinson's Proposal

UNIVERSAL Military Training plans have taken a new tack with House Armed Services Chairman Carl Vinson's plan for a voluntary UMT of 60,000 men.
If approved, it would start this fall.

Maj.-Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, Selective Service director, and Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg, assistant defense secretary in charge of manpower problems
had presented other plans for getting UMT started.

But the Pentagon has now decided to back the Vinson plan.
There are three principal reasons.

First, the Vinson plan could be started without additional cost,
that is, within the presently planned $51 billion defense budget.

Second, it would not affect present draft quotas from men 18½ to 26 years of age. Only 18-year-olds would volunteer for the six-month UMT training.

Third, this small beginning would permit the Department of Defense to build up UMT gradually, gaining necessary experience as it went along.

Opposition to the whole idea
of UMT remains pretty much what it always has been. Church groups are against it, and they constitute the most effective opposition. Labor union and farm organization leaders are against it.

Educational leaders are against it for a variety of reasons. Some want the job done as part of the regular educational system.

Others are opposed to any peace-time interruption in the educational process. But an American Council of Education meeting in Washington was unable to agree on any stand to take against pending UMT
plans.

ALL THE VETERANS organizations and patriotic societies are for UMT. And it is not a political issue, except as individual candidates have taken stands for or against it. Both Republican and Democratic leaders have supported UMT for many years.

Public opinion polls show majorities favor the UMT idea. It is not expected to be debated widely during the coming Presidential and Congressional campaigns.

The whole question now is how to meet military requirements
from the available manpower resources, while at the same time
a new long range national defense plan is put into operation.

Coupled with the UMT legislation is a new military reserve bill which must also be enacted to make UMT fully effective.

It may take six or seven years
to get UMT in full operation. By 1960, every qualified young man would be required to serve his six months in UMT. He would then go into the reserves for seven and a half years, to age 26.

When these UMT reserves are built up to necessary strength,
it is believed the size of the regular peace-time military establishment can be reduced.

Military budgets can then be cut proportionately. That is the long range objective.

Military leaders may be over-optimistic in their estimates that they will be able to take these UMT graduates and whip them into combat divisions within three to six months after an emergency call-up of the reserves.

But this is the target which military leaders are shooting at.
Costs of training each UMT
man for six months are estimated at $2700. Since the armed services now spend about $11,000 per man per year, savings would be considerable.

OF COURSE, if the six-months' training was found to be inadequate, legislation
might be introduced to lengthen
the period. This "foot in the door"
approach is what bothers many UMT critics.

It is impossible to start UMT
at full strength this year or for several years to come. There aren't enough young men reaching age 18 to fill UMT and also to meet draft requirements for a three and a half million man armed force.

Two year service for over a million 1950 draftees expires this year. They have to be replaced by new drafts or volunteers.

Selective Service Administration estimates the number of boys
reaching 18 this year at 1,108,- 000, an average of 90,000 a month.
From a third to a half of this number is rejected for physical disability or for occupational and educational deferments.

The number of boys reaching 18 this year is lower than would normally be expected because of the low birth rate in the depression year 1934.

The number reaching 18 will increase by 20,000 to 50,000 a year until 1958, when it is expected to reach 1,500,000. These will be the boys who were born in 1940.

Health To You

Questions For The Doctor

THE doctor tells what can be done about dehydration. Answers other questions too.

Q—What can I do to help stop dehydrating? I drink six glasses of water every day, and two glasses of buttermilk. Mrs. W.S.

A—This is not an enormous intake of fluids, but excessive thirst
and excessive elimination of urine are among the symptoms of diabetes and you should probably be tested for this as well as other possibilities.

Q—Several weeks ago my daughter, who is 16 months old,
was bitten by a dog. The doctor cauterized the wound, which was only a scratch, and told me to check the dog for 10 days. So far as anyone knows, the dog is well. However, I am still worried about the danger of her contracting rabies. Can you relieve my mind? M. P.

A—If the dog remained well,
there is no danger of rabies. Furthermore, a slight scratch would be unlikely to transmit this disease. The chances of any trouble are so remote that it should cause

you no further concern.

Q—What is the difference between liver extract and vitamin B12 in the treatment of pernicious anemia? F. A.

A—Both are useful methods of treating pernicious anemia. Vitamin B12 is probably the stronger and likely contains the antiper-
nicious anemia factor in more concentration than liver extract.
However, the choice of which preparation to use, (and both are good), should rest with the physician in charge.

Q—Would vitamin B6 or B12
help in the growth of a very short child of four years old? Mrs. N. L.

A—It is doubtful that either would help. Anyway, one should not worry about the size of a four-year-old since the rate of growth is irregular and one cannot tell at this age how large the child will be in a few years.

Congress Has No Control Over Liquor Traffic

By DAVID LAWRENCE

THEY ARE tampering with an important principle of constitutional government in the hearings on the proposed bill to pass a federal law prohibiting the use of radio or television to sell intoxicating beverages.

Congress has absolutely no constitutional power to regulate the sale of intoxicating beverages.
The people, by the vote of two-thirds of both houses of Congress
and three-fourths of the states, in convention assembled, decided to take away from the federal government all power to regulate the liquor traffic which had been previously prohibited
in the 18th amendment.

The new 21st Amendment repeals explicitly the 18th amendment, and this means that the Congress has no more rights
over the sale of liquors than
over other articles of commerce,
and specifically none that interfere with the right of any medium of expression to be used to sell products which are in themselves lawful to manufacture.

It was precisely by this method of indirection—the passage of a law at first limiting sales of beer
to a certain content—that the nation was led step by step into the tragic experience with Prohibition—an era which brought the modern gangster and the vice
of the underworld, because it made bootlegging profitable.

IF THE NATION has changed its mind about the Prohibition question, the forthright way for the "drys" to proceed would be to introduce another proposed amendment giving the federal government complete power
again over the commerce in liquors.

Even the radio and television-station spokesmen have made the mistake of conceding that the sale of hard liquors over their networks could be injurious, for they point with pride to their own code which by voluntary agreement causes the stations

to refrain from accepting programs for the sale of such products. This is to admit that there is something wrong with the sale of such articles by radio and television and not through other media of expression, including the mails. If it's bad for the articles to be mentioned in one medium that comes into the home,
it is bad for all other media too.

The principle, moreover, is one that goes to the heart of constitutional rights. For if the sale of a beverage can be prohibited by Congress because of a belief that it can be used to excess, so also can the sale of any other article that could be harmful to health be tabooed.

THUS there are probably more deaths and injuries due to motorcar accidents on the highways than to any other single cause. Does Congress have the right to prohibit the sale of automobiles and trucks? Does Congress have the right to prohibit the sale of aspirin tablets
because some people use them to excess? Does Congress have the right to prohibit, in times
of peace, the sale of hunting
weapons because those same weapons
can be used to kill or maim human beings instead of wild animals? Isn't it today the province of the states to regulate by law
the cases of those individuals who wrongfully use any article to excess and become a danger to their fellow citizens?

The answer is that there is no clause in the Constitution which permits Congress to legislate such prohibitions on moral grounds. Indeed, there has arisen

even a stricter ban on the right of Congress to legislate on the liquor traffic. It has been held that, when the people spoke their views on the 18th Amendment
and repealed it, they said specifically that Congress had no right to pass any laws governing the manufacture of intoxicating beverages, that such prohibitions
could be put into effect only by the several states, and that the federal power existed solely to stop importation into those states which passed laws prohibiting importation of intoxicating beverages.

THERE IS NO mention of the word "sale" in the 21st amendment, and it is within the constitution now for intoxicating
beverages to be offered for sale
by mail or otherwise even in so-called dry states but delivery
must be taken outside the dry states.

For Congress now to pass any bill forbidding radio and television to broadcast sales messages concerning liquors would also run afoul of the first amendment to the Constitution, which says that the right of expression shall not be abridged by any law of Congress.

If it is argued that Congress
has acquired a right of prohibition through the fact that radio and television stations are licensed by the federal government, then the answer is that Congress cannot censor the content of radio programs except within those limitations of fraud
or obscenity which are recognized by the Supreme Court as qualifying the right of free speech and freedom of the press.

Everybody Big Chief

By TRUMAN TWILL

WHEN a U.S. senator peered over his glasses and counted
the time-serving brass hats at a hearing the other day, he told the Pentagon it apparently had more chiefs than Indians.

Now here is a situation by no means confined to Washington, D.C. In all fields, the multiplication of brass hats is giving even the rabbits something to think about.

Vice presidents have little vice presidents. Pint-sized functionaries have half-pint sized func-tionaries. It is like the fleas on a dog that have little fleas and so on, until the fleas are too small to see. But they're there, all right. They make themselves felt.

Gag-writers even make jokes about the situation. It finds a simple order being relayed all the way down from the Bull of the Woods to some quivering Tremblechin below stairs, who finally does the simple task which could have been done in a fraction of the time by the Bull, himself.

Least funny of all the things
about it is the fact it is very expensive. The flunky who finally dirties his hands by lifting the wrench to turn the valve which releases the steam to blow the whistle to signalize the decision of No. 1 that it is time for No.
37 to lower the boom is beginning to take himself seriously. He sees all the money being spent
for the care and feeding of brass hats and goes after some of it for himself.

If he is going to do the work
he is going to get his price. That explains what has happened to pay rates of fellows who know how to fix pipes that leak,

lights that won't turn on, gadgets
that won't work—all the gooney
of an age of artisanship in which there are no longer enough artisans to do the routine work.

All the Indians want to be chief.
They had better get a chance to try, or they will turn into bad Indians.

It won't take long for the chiefs to outnumber the Indians. It is only a matter of time until there are so many officers on the bridge
they outnumber the working stiffs
below decks.

It's getting to be as bad as it always has been in the case of women, whose work is never done. Everybody in the household crew has good ideas—birthday cakes, hot mince pies, clean curtains, washing the dog, putting out the cat, hanging new pictures, switching the rug to hide
the hole under the davenport,
preparing a good hot breakfast,
fixing a snack at bedtime.

But in the showdown it's always the lady of the house who must wield the implements to do the work that has been laid out
for her by the chiefs who are full of ideas but empty of intent to carry them out.

No generalities are called for here. None would be safe anyway, because in some organizations the chiefs actually swing
the tomahawks while the Indians, themselves, do the shouting. But weird tribal setups in which the brass exceeds the rank and file
are not uncommon in this topsy-turvy society, either.

Peeble Can't Fathom Capital

WASHINGTON
WILBUR PEEBLE, America's most average citizen, today suddenly called off his one-man investigation of the federal government.

He tells why in this final letter to his wife, Trellis Mae:

DEAREST HONEY,

Well, I give up!
I came here as a patriotic duty, trying to find out what really is going on in the national capital. But it is simply too much for one mind, no matter how gifted.

You have to be a paper clip to really get the feel of Washington.

And I'm worn out from head to foot. My arches are flat from walking on marble floors
all day, and I'm suffering from martini-arthritis, a common disease among the cocktail
circuit riders here.

Also, I'm broke. I told the hotel clerk I would probably have to go out on the highway
and hitch a ride home.

"A lot of our visitors leave that way," he said, cheerfully. "Come back after the November election. They always button up here
a little before election."

Now, that was a typical remark. They figure nobody comes to Washington except to look for a job, and nobody leaves unless he is disappointed. They just don't believe anybody works outside the government by choice.

YOU ALMOST BECAME a widow yesterday. I was passing a government office building just before dusk. The doors opened and a mob of people rushed out and ran over me.
I jumped up and yelled at a fellow:

"There must've been an explosion in there. Come on. Let's go in and help bring out the wounded."

"There's nothing wrong," he said. "It's just quitting time."

I fell in step with him, and he said:
"You know a lot of folks have got the wrong idea about us government employes.
They think we're all loafers. But we work as hard as anybody. I wish some of them that criticize us just had my job."

Then he paused in alarm, and said:
"What am I saying. I don't mean that."

I DECIDED I ought to pay my respects to President Truman before getting out of town. On my way over I told the taxi driver
I felt pretty blue because I really hadn't been able to find out what is going on in Washington.

He cheered me up by saying:
"They ain't nothin to find out because they ain't nothin going on, now, bud. Nobody is doing anything, because he knows if he does something he'll be investigated, whatever it is. Everybody's in his mouse hole—waiting."

Well, I didn't get to see the President.
One of his hired hands apologized, and said:
"He's busy right now reading a book somebody sent him called 'How to Live on a Small Income in Florida.'"

But I'll tell you, Trellis Mae, the President is the only relaxed man in town. He's having more fun than a circus, because he's the only man here who knows for sure what he's going to do—and hasn't said what it is.

The Democrats all say, "Of course he's going to run." And the Republicans all say:
"I just wish he'd run again—or do it? Nobody can rear back and pass a second miracle
—or can he?"

FROM MY WINDOW I can see the Washington monument, standing clear and bare and simple in the moonlight. That is the way life used to be here. But now it is more like the capitol building covered with complicated fretwork and full of many rooms.

Washington is like a big sea. The politicians come and make a few waves in their time, then leave. But the real currents run too deep for us on the surface to know.

Anyway, I'm coming home before they start investigating my investigation. It's all too much for

Your loving husband,

W. B. Peeble
P.S.—Tell the boss I have recovered from my virus infection, and I'll be back at work Monday.

And Lemuel Clinkscale, who defeated Leroy Cheairs of Cleveland for the 12-pound championship.

The other open victors were:

Isaac Vaughn of Cleveland, who stopped Ronnie Savage of Massillon in the second round of the 135-pound bout; Tom Salme of Cleveland, who defeated Eddie Crawford of Akron in the 126-pound division, and Willie Finney of Cleveland, who defeated Doc Joshua of Massillon.

The winners were awarded the Northeast Ohio Amateur Athletic Union crowns. The open champs also are eligible for the Chicago tournament of champions, the National AAU tournament in April at Boston and the American Olympic team regional at Toledo in May.

All-Stars Tally Seventh Straight

The Salem Junior High All-Star basketball team tallied its seventh straight victory Friday afternoon when they topped Sebring Junior High, 40-23.

The All-Stars scored the win with constant scoring through the four periods. The Quakers opened up with 11 markers in the first period and seven in the second stanza against the Trojan's nine in the first quarter and their single marker in a poor third period.

Salem continued to the victory with 12 and ten markers in the last period while the Trojans lasted for 13 markers as a total.

Dick Hunter and Don Strojek led the winners with 11 and ten points, respectively, while Jim Martin headed the losers with nine markers.

Big Red Tops Potters, Win 16th Straight

Steubenville grabbed its second victory of the year over the East Liverpool Potters last night in The Potter's Memorial Hall, 55-48.

It was the sixteenth straight triumph for the Big Red team while their loss column is sportless. Coach Merrill Hall's quintet took its sixth defeat in 16 games.

East Liverpool opened the game strongly and ended weakly while the Big Red reversed the procedure. The Potters tallied 16 markers to Steubenville's eleven in the opening frame to hold the five-point lead and they outscored the visiting outfit in the second period, 14-12.

EAST LIVERPOOL also was on top when the third period came to a close, leading 43-35 with but eight minutes from victory. However, the Big Red team changed their opponents' plans and overwhelmed them with a 20-point quarter while giving away just five points to the Potter five.

Bill Ross and Chuck Ellis led the winners' with 17 markers apiece while Bob McCoy and Paul James headed the Potters with 12 and 11 points, respectively.

The East Liverpool Reserves took a one-sided affair from the Big Red Reserves in the preliminary game, 63-29.

Reserves Lose To Garfield Quintet, 52-33

The Salem Reserves racked up against a hot Akron Garfield Reserve outfit and never overcame the home five after ending up on the short end of a 16-1 count at the end of the first period.

The locals, losing the contest 52-33, were all but blanked in the opening quarter but they came back to outscore the Garfield five, 15-14, in the second period.

BEING BEHIND, 30-16, at intermission, the Quakers kept up the pace and each squad tallied nine markers in the third stanza. The Presidents took charge of the last quarter with a 13-8 lead and won the game handily by 19 points, 52-33.

Mickey Fenton and Don Oldham sparked the Garfield cagers to the victory with 15 and 14 points, respectively. Jack Gottschling's 11 markers led the Quakers, now winners of six with eight setbacks.

Most of the 32 minutes of play was spent at the foul line as the two officials called a total of 54 fouls for the game. The same pair also worked the varsity game and showed no improvement.

The Garfield five tallied a total of 16 free throws of 33 shots while the Quakers netted 21 of 35 shots. From the floor the locals were badly outscored as they could only manage six goals from the field against Garfield's 18.

Adams Stars For Garfield Five; Quakers Meet Louisville Today

By SKIP GREENISEN

The Salem Quakers had their three-game winning streak snapped last night at the Akron Garfield High School gym when the Presidents only letterman, Alex Adams, led the rest of his squad to a 51-39 victory over the locals.

The game, Salem's 13th of the year, was tight the first period of play but the Garfield quintet gained the lead late in the second quarter and Salem never fronted them the remainder of the night.

Adams, 6 foot 3½ inch Negro cager with glasses, was held to three fouls in the initial period but he had his big periods in the second and third frames. The junior cager accounted for a pair of goals and a foul in the second period but the third stanza was his biggest as he tallied four goals and a free throw.

The tussle opened with Salem scoring first as Wayne Harris broke across the foul circle and scored an easy one-hander. Dick Valentine tallied a short set shot from the corner and Jerry Ball pushed up a left-handed shot seconds later to give the locals a 4-2 lead.

Garfield tied the count at 4 all with Adams' two foul shots and then took a 10-5 lead minutes before the quarter was to end. Bill Brelih came up with a field goal, Adams hit his third free throw and Brelih came back with two quick baskets, the final one to tie the score at 11-all just seconds before the quarter ended.

THE TWO OUTFITS knotted the count at 13 and 14 before the Quakers took an 18-15 lead with the quarter half gone. The Presidents, however, came up with nine points in that four minutes while Salem managed only one.

Coming from the intermission period, the Quakers were six points back and cut it to four, the closest the team got to the Garfield team the rest of the night.

At the end of the third quarter the two teams were six points apart, 37-31. The Presidents continued to gain and the Quakers lost ground although they put up a battle all the way. The winners dominated most of the play in the final period, taking free shots and controlling the backboards for the greater part of the quarter as they did most of the entire last half.

ADAMS WAS outstanding both in rebounding and ball handling. The cager got most of his twenty markers as a result of tip-ins, especially in the third period when the locals were tiring.

Adams had a perfect night at the foul line until his last and ninth attempt which bounced off the front.

Brelih led the locals with a ten-point total while Ball and George Alek scored nine markers apiece. From the floor the locals were outscored, 19-15, as well as from the foul lane, 13-9. The locals, as usual, were outshot, 74-55, but they topped the Akron five in percentage.

The Quakers shot a 27.7 per cent from the field while the home team allied 25.7 per cent.

THE REFEREES, a pair of unknowns in the district, were "off their game" and somewhat favored Akron, being of Akron residence. The whistle tooters called 14 fouls on Salem and 15 on Garfield but were missing many fouls under the basket.

Now holding a 6-7 record, the Quakers will try to get back on the victory trail with a win tonight over Louisville. The Quakers will meet the Leopards seven lettermen who have compiled a 5-8 record, after their 52-48 win over Lisbon last night.

The Leopards have scored victories over Canton Lincoln, Orrville, Kent Roosevelt, Poland and Lisbon. Setbacks have come at the hands of Minerva in two games, Ravenna, Sebring, East Palestine, North Canton, Hubbard and Alliance.

VeJar Stops DeFazio
NEW YORK (AP)—Chico VeJar, the fighting freshman from N.Y.U., had his college education all paid for today. Now he's looking forward to earning post-graduate fees against rough Paddy De Marco on Feb. 29.

The wiry, fast punching 20-year-old from Stamford, Conn., gave Johnny (Red) De Fazio of Bayonne, N. J., a course in stretch fighting last night and then stopped the 21-year-old redhead in 41 seconds of the ninth round of a Madison Square Garden ten rounder.

Chico's neat exhibition earned him about $7,500 and put him in line for the Garden shot with De Marco, a ranking lightweight contender.

Things Looking Up For Tribe, It Appears

CLEVELAND (AP)—What about Luke Easter's knee? How about Cleveland's pitching? What about . . . ?

In the banquet league, Manager Al Lopez and General Manager Hank Greenberg of the Indians get questions like those regularly. In fact, they say the questions follow a pattern.

Here are the typical ones, with answers:

Easter's knee—Greenberg: Doctors are optimistic. With a good knee he will hit 35 or 40 homers.

Pitching—Lopez: Will be as good as last year, because of improved fielding and because reliever Lou Brissie will start out in better shape physically.

Will Dale Mitchell play left field this year, because of improved fielding and because reliever Lou Brissie will start out in better shape physically.

Will Dale Mitchell play left field this year? Lopez: Yes, "Until a better one comes along."

Will Harry Simpson ever make good? Greenberg: "Definitely." Lopez: "I think Simpson will hit."

What about Sam Jones? Lopez: "Great prospect" but he may not get a chance to pitch much for a while because of "excellent starters." Greenberg: If regular pitching falters, he is "our guarantee to take up the slack."

Did you want Ted Williams? Lopez: "Very much." Would you have been stuck if he went into the Marine corps? Greenberg: "I think so." Who would you have traded for him? Greenberg: Negotiations never got that far.

Can Cleveland, as now constituted, win the pennant? Lopez: "A very good chance." Greenberg: "It's our turn to get the breaks."

Close Scores In County Tilts

Leetonia, Columbiana Among The Victors

Leetonia, Columbiana and Fairfield Township were among Columbiana County schools posting wins in basketball games Friday night.

The Leetonia Bears scored heavily in the second and third quarters to forge ahead of Beloit and win 55-46 in a game played at Beloit. The Beloit Reserves won 32-28.

The Columbiana Clippers continued their winning ways by shading McDonald 62 to 59.

Berlin Center put up a stiff fight but lost to Fairfield Township 44-42 at Berlin Center. The game was tied nine times with Sam Ferguson swishing one through the hoop in the last nine seconds to win for the Comets.

The Fairfield Reserves dumped the Berlin secondary 37-19.

Goshen Union lost last night to Salineville by a score of 80 to 57, but the Goshen Reserves posted a 48-29 victory.

Lisbon fell before Louisville of Stark County, 52 to 48, while Greenford won over New Waterford 47-44.

Legion League Boys Are Dined

20 Team Members,
Leaders Plan Year

COLUMBIANA—Preliminary to the organization of a team for the Columbiana County Junior American Legion Baseball League the coming season, Firestone American Legion Post gave a dinner for members of the team last year and prospective members this year at the Legion home Thursday evening. About 20 boys were entertained.

A representative of a baseball uniform concern was to have been present with samples, but was unable to keep his engagement and has promised to be at the next meeting, which will be held in March. Don Young, photographer, showed pictures of games played last summer. The age limit for membership in the team this year excludes boys born before 1935.

STUDIES of South American countries will be the theme of subsequent meetings for some time of the Past Presidents' Parley of Firestone American Legion Post Auxiliary under the direction of Mrs. Paul Reeves, Pan-American chairman, it was decided at the February meeting at the home of Mrs. Ross Sheets, New Springfield Rd., Thursday evening.

Mrs. Reeves displayed a doll representing a South American costume and showed a scrapbook relating to Pan-American countries. An invitation was received for the Columbiana Parley to be from the East Palestine Parley its guest in Grim's tea room in East Palestine Monday evening, March 17.

The next meeting of the Columbiana Parley will be at the home of Mrs. Edwin Johnson, 29 S. Cross St., Thursday evening, March 6.

EXAMINATIONS at Salem City Hospital revealed that Mrs. Wick Fry, struck by an automobile on Union St. Wednesday, suffered a fractured pelvis and broken ribs, the extent of which cannot be determined until she has made further recovery from shock. It is expected she may be confined to the hospital a couple of months.

Boy Scout Services

Boy Scout Week in Columbiana will conclude with the annual church service, to be held this year in the Methodist Church at 10:45 a.m. Sunday, when the pastor, Rev. W. S. Longworth, will preach a scout sermon. Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts and Scouters will meet in the church basement to be ready for the service at 10:45. Scouts will wear their uniforms.

Plan Pythian Party

Sunset Temple, Pythian Sisters, will have a Valentine party in connection with the meeting Wednesday evening, each member to take a valentine with 50-cent handkerchief and lunch. Degree practice will follow the meeting.

Rev. G. S. Strausbaugh of Columbiana, retired minister of the Church of the Brethren, will preach in Grace Evangelical and Reformed Church at 10:45 a.m. Sunday.

Black and White year books, painted by Mrs. Allan White, were distributed to the Hobby Club of Columbiana at its meeting at the home of Mrs. Walter Miller, 365 Firestone Ave., Wednesday afternoon. Instruction in Swedish hand weaving was continued by Mrs. Sam Belief, and comparisons between the Swedish and Danish methods were discussed.

Graduates With Honors

Robert Ward, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Ward, 384 Fairfield Ave., was graduated with honors in agriculture from Clemson College, Clemson, S. C., Sunday, Jan. 27, and is pursuing a post graduate course and research work for the college until June. In attendance at commencement were his parents; a sister, Mrs. Maxine Martino of Washington, D. C., and a brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ward of West Palm Beach, Fla. After graduation from Columbiana High School, Mr. Ward spent three years in the military service during World War II, and was a paratrooper in the European theater.

Plumber Examinations Arranged For Feb. 23

The County Health Department which has to okay all master and journeyman plumbers working in the General Health District has tentatively set Saturday, Feb. 23, for examination.

B. Russell Franklin, sanitary engineer, said the examining board is completing question lists. Tests will be given all day at the Health Center on E. Washington St. in Lisbon.

Franklin said the department has eight applicants and that they'll be notified by letter when to report. Others interested in taking the exam should contact Franklin at the Health Center.

The examiners—two plumbers and a Health Department plumbing inspector—will be selected from the following panel. Franklin said:

J. R. Stratton of Salem and Robert Kinsey of East Liverpool, masters; Joseph Kornbau of Salem and Keith Harmon of East Liverpool, journeymen, and Earl Wang and Daniel McKeever, department inspectors.

Nine Salem Firms Will Join Industrial Expo March 10-15

Nine business and industrial firms of the Salem area are among the 72 companies which are preparing to take part in the fourth annual Industrial Exposition, to be held March 10-15 at Stambaugh Auditorium, Youngstown.

The Exposition, sponsored jointly by the Industrial Information Institute, and the Junior Chambers of Commerce in Mahoning, Columbiana, Trumbull and Mercer Counties, has been planned to tie in with the observance of "Career Week" in the schools, and with Hi-Y observances of "Civic Day," March 11, when high school students will sit in with executives in government and business.

Purpose of this exposition is to show high school students and their parents how the business of the Mahoning and Shenango Valleys operates, and emphasize the many types of job opportunities these firms offer.

The exhibits this year will be unified, to tell one coherent story, and give an over-all picture of what the valleys have to offer, William J. Sampson, president of the Industrial Information Institute, explained.

Additional entertainment will be offered by General Electric's "House of Magic" show.

Salem concerns participating in the exposition include the E. W. Bliss Co. Mullins Mfg. Corp., Electric Furnace Co., First National and Farmers National Banks, Lincoln Machine Co., Paxson Machine Co., Quaker City Foundry and Salem Tool Co.

Salem Men Win Prizes In Artists Exhibition

Two Salem men have received recognition in the Associated Artists Exhibition which opened Thursday night in Pittsburgh.

Tom Rowlands, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rowlands of E. Fourth St., made his debut in this show and won second prize for "Poster to a Yellow Man" as well as the graphic prize for "Young Mother." The critics' opinion is that Rowlands shows a flair for the dramatic in the deliberately witty montage pattern which builds up his oil pictures.

The other Salemite, Matthew Mawhinney of S. Lincoln, shows what is described as a tranquil painting entitled "Early Service" (Christian Walter Prize). The exhibition is now open to the public and continues through March 6.

3 Mt. Union Professors Will Receive Honors

ALLIANCE — Mount Union College Monday evening will honor three of its professors who have completed 25 years of service at the 105-year-old educational institution.

Mount Union President Dr. Charles B. Ketchum said the three are Dr. Louis A. Pappenhagen, Dr. Albanus B. Kitzmiller, and Professor Ohmer H. Engle. This year marks the 25th for Kitzmiller while Pappenhagen and Engle joined the faculty in 1925.

Principal speaker for the event will be Dr. Myron Wicke, former Baldwin-Wallace dean, now assistant secretary of the Board of Education of the Methodist Church, Nashville, Tenn. All three will receive the small golden lapel pins.

Capehart To Push Bill To Do Away With RFC

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senator Capehart (R-Ind.) said today he will ask the Senate to set aside other business and immediately take up a bill to abolish the much-investigated Reconstruction Finance Corporation (RFC).

The Senate Banking Committee already has agreed to seek an early showdown on this measure and a second by Senator Fulbright (D-Ark.) to make certain reforms in the agency.

Will Speak In Warren

WARREN (AP) — Senator Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.) and Michael DiSalle will speak at the fourth annual Brookfield Township Jefferson-Jackson Day dinner Feb. 21 in nearby Masury.

Kefauver is seeking the Democratic presidential nomination. DiSalle wants to be the party's candidate for U. S. senator.

Bound Over To Jury

WARREN (AP) — An Akron truck driver, George Rohrabach, 45, has been bound to the grand jury on a manslaughter charge in the traffic death of Charles V. Jarrett, 41, another Akron trucker, last Dec. 12.

He pleaded innocent and was freed on $1,500 bond. Trucks driven by Rohrabach and Jarrett collided at nearby Newton Falls.

Operate Arsenal

RAVENNA (AP)—The government will turn over operation of Ravenna Arsenal entirely to Ravenna Arsenal, Inc., a subsidiary of the Firestone Tire Rubber Co., it was announced here today.

The subsidiary already had been running most of the arsenal. The change will affect some 1,500 employees now on the government's payroll.

IKE TO ATTEND RITES SUPREME HEADQUARTERS ALLIED POWERS IN EUROPE (AP) — A SHAPE spokesman announced today that Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower will fly to London late next week for the funeral of King George VI.

ELKS AUXILIARY MEETS

Mrs. John Grubbs was appointed Inner Guard to fill the vacancy left by Mrs. J. G. Unger, who is moving out of town, when the Elks Auxiliary held a business meeting Tuesday evening at the home. Plans were made for a social meeting on Feb. 19 when initiation of new members will be held.

Three Area Concerns Given Army Contracts

Three district industrial concerns have been awarded government contracts totaling $122,000, Williams S. Singley, U. S. Department of Labor official, said today.

The Columbiana Boiler Co., received a $32,000 order to provide the Army with chlorine tanks. The Minerva Wax Paper Co. will supply the Army with $52,000 worth of barrier paper and the Good Roads Machinery Corp., also of Minerva, received a $38,000 order to provide the Army with construction equipment parts.

Salem Trio On Trip To Mediterranean

Three Salem people are among 501 passengers who sailed from New York Friday aboard the liner SS Independence for a 56-day Mediterranean cruise.

They are Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Reming and Mrs. R. B. Kernohan of S. Lincoln Ave. The ship will visit 20 ports in 16 countries.

American Legion Groups Plan Meeting Monday

A joint meeting of members of the American Legion post and auxiliary executive committees will be held at 8 p.m. Monday in the post home. All the members of post and auxiliary will dine at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday in a joint party. The women will bring the food and the men will provide the entertainment.

Leetonia

The Sue Bixler Missionary Society of St. Paul's Lutheran Church was entertained at the home of Mrs. Helen Stambaugh Friday afternoon. Mrs. H. C. Brillhart was the leader of the topic "The Home and Missions."

Initiation will be held at the regular meeting of the Order Sons of Italy Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. All members are urged to attend.

IRE OUT OF OREGON RACE

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—General Dwight Eisenhower will not appear as a candidate for president on the Oregon Democratic primary election ballot. His Democratic backers said they would withdraw the petitions which put the general's name on the ballot for the May 16 election.

Berea Girl Returned

CLEVELAND (AP) — Beauty Queen Sandra Charvat, 16, was back at her home in suburban Berea today, nearly two weeks after she left for Florida with two male companions.

The girl was reported missing several days before she sent her mother a post card. Police in Tampa, Fla., put her on a train for home Wednesday night.

Obituary

Frank P. Bernet

Frank P. Bernet, 43, of near Homeworth, died at his home at 8:15 a.m. Friday of a heart attack. He had gone to the barn to do his work and dropped dead.

He was a pipe fitter for the Natural Gas Co., and had lived in the Homeworth vicinity for four years, coming from Hanoverton where he was born March 17, 1908. A member of St. Joseph Catholic Church of Alliance, he had served in the army from June, 1942 to November, 1945.

Survivors include his wife, Beryl; a son, Lawrence; his mother Mrs. Marie Bernet of Hanoverton; a sister, Mrs. Anna Gruber of Hanoverton; three brothers, Anthony of Pittsburgh and John and James of Hanoverton.

Funeral service will be at 9 a.m. Monday at the St. Phillip Neri Catholic Church at Dunganon in charge of Rev. Fr. Paul A. Marceau. Interment will be in St. Paul's Cemetery in Dunganon. Friends may call Sunday evening from 7 to 9 at the Maple funeral home in Kensington.

Rev. Sylvester W. Young

Rev. Sylvester W. Young, 84, former pastor of the North Jackson Federated Church, died of a heart attack at 12:30 a.m. today in his home at Mt. Pleasant, Jefferson county.

He was a minister for more than 50 years, serving pastorates in Pennsylvania, Missouri and Ohio. Rev. Young was born Jan. 31, 1868 in New Castle, Pa. He was a graduate of the College of Wooster and Western Theological Seminary in Pittsburgh.

Besides his widow, Mrs. Helen McConahey Young, he is survived by two daughters and four sons, including Paul Young of Lisbon.

Services will be held at 11 a.m. Monday in the family home and interment will be in New Castle. Friends may call Sunday afternoon and evening at the family home.

King

the valley—from the wreaths which lay on the closed coffin.

The wreaths had come from the King's own family—his widow, Queen Mother Elizabeth, and his daughters, Queen Elizabeth and Princess Margaret. No other wreaths were brought, for this was a private mourning.

A canvas screen billowed gently in the breeze near the gate to the church to shield the chapel from the handful of curious who had gathered outside.

By twos and threes, the villagers were ushered past the lone constable and up the shrub-lined path. It was no fashionable display—no pomp or ceremony—

just villagers dressed in the black they wear every Sunday when they go to church.

On the roads outside Sandringham, army cars traveled back and forth along the two-mile route to the railroad station, where the body of the King will be taken Monday to start the journey to London to lie in state at Westminster Hall for three days before the funeral on Friday. Army officers said they were checking the route and the timing for the slow procession from the church to the four-car special train which will carry the body.

The monarch's coffin had been closed late yesterday afternoon after Queen Elizabeth reached Sandringham from London. The new queen spent several quiet minutes in the dimly-lit bedroom where the body of her father lay before it was brought to the church. Then she watched as the coffin was carried down the paths.

As it was at the funeral of King George V, the casket will remain closed when the body lies in state in London and when it is taken to Windsor Castle for the funeral.

No services will be held Sunday in the church.

INDIA CURFEW IMPOSED

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Newspaper reports today said the Kashmir government imposed a 72-hour curfew in the disputed state's winter capital, Jammu, following riots there last night.

GOP TO TOUR SOUTH

ATLANTA (AP) — For the first time in history, the Republican presidential nominee will campaign through the South this year, says GOP National Chairman Guy Gabrielson.

Lewis Says Rep. Hays

Blocked Him as Delegate

Ray E. Lewis of Lisbon RD has complained to the state Democratic headquarters that Rep. Wayne L. Hays prevented him from filing as a prospective national convention delegate in the 18th Congressional District.

Eugene H. Hanhart, state Democratic chairman at Columbus, blamed "inordinate pressure" for blocking the county's move to appear on the primary ballot as a delegate. Hays is in Washington and could not be reached for comment.

Lewis filed, however, for 18th District state central committee. Delegates and committeemen are elected May 6.

Hays is a sponsor of a slate of delegates pledged to Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee for president.

Lewis was to have pledged support from former U.S. Sen. Robert Bulkley of Cleveland, the state Democrat organization's "Favorite Son" candidate for president.

PRICE DECLINE RECORDED

WASHINGTON (AP) — Price declines in grain, livestock, eggs, fresh vegetables, meat and other items showed the government's wholesale price index down three-tenths of one percent during the week ending Feb. 5.

TAKEN OFF PURGE LIST

TOKYO (AP) — The Japanese government today announced that 120 former admirals and generals had been removed from the purge list, including 17 high officers of the once-dreaded thought police.

QUEEN VICTORIA 1837-1901

THE VICTORIAN LINE—Britain's new Queen, Elizabeth II and her Prince Consort, Philip, are both great-great-grandchildren of Queen Victoria and are therefore third cousins. It is interesting to note that Queen Elizabeth descended through the male line of Victoria's children while Philip descended through the female line.

Civic Club Representatives Plan For Soap Box Derby

Complimenting the fine start that has been made toward the Salem soap box derby, Donald Weber of Cleveland, promotion manager of the Chevrolet Motor Co., co-sponsor of the race with the Salem Junior Chamber of Commerce, spoke to 25 civic club representatives in the Chamber of Commerce rooms last night.

Weber admitted that when first approached with the idea of holding a derby in Salem he tried to discourage planners because of the amount of work necessary and the size of the town. He said the turnout last night and start already made on the derby show that Salem is determined to succeed in getting a boy to the national finals in Akron.

The Chamber of Commerce was appointed to contact merchants for prize money for the race. The Rotary Club received the task of finding merchants who will want to sponsor racers in the derby.

Weber said official wheels will cost $12.25 and will be sold on a non-profit basis at Parker Chevrolet in about two weeks. Registration blanks should also be in at Parker's about that time, he added. A boy's parent or guardian must be present when he signs up.

Sponsors will aid boys who cannot pay the full cost themselves. Total cost of the racers cannot exceed $10 above the cost of the wheels.

The group decided to find a street in Salem that can be closed off for a practice area for the boys. The official race will be run June 22 on Damascus Rd., Blackburn Hill or the following Sunday in case of rain.

Boys 11 to 15 from Columbiana and Mahoning Counties may enter. The winner is eligible for the All-American Soap Box Derby in Akron where the winner receives a trophy and a $5,000 scholarship.

Sen. Estes Kefauver Makes Southern Debut

SELMA, Ala. (AP) — Senator Estes Kefauver makes his Southern debut as a presidential candidate here tonight, speaking in a states rights stronghold where FEPC is a thing of scorn.

The Tennessee Democrat, who has said he will go along with a mandatory FEPC (Fair Employment Practices Commission) law if the party writes it into the platform, is scheduled to address a statewide midwinter conference at the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

In the fiscal year 1949, 188,317 immigrants were admitted to the United States.

House Votes Liquor Ban In UMT Setup

WASHINGTON (AP) — Controversy over sale of intoxicants to 18-year-olds who may take Universal Military Training indicates final selection of UMT training centers may be influenced by state liquor laws.

The Senate Armed Services Committee yesterday received a "tentative list" of 17 army, navy, marine and air force installations in 12 states where the six months of basic training for 18-year-olds could begin this year if Congress passes necessary legislation.

Senator Hunt (D-Wyo.) said he is confident the committee will approve the UMT bill as did the House Armed Services Committee. But there was a lot of talk about the sale of beer and liquor to minors.

The house committee, in approving its UMT bill, banned sale of intoxicants to the trainees, but allowed sale of beer of one percent alcoholic content.

Will Probe Judd Escape

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — A state investigation was on today to determine just how trunk murderer Winnie Ruth Judd had managed her latest escape from the Arizona Hospital for the Insane. The "Tiger" woman of 20 years ago returned voluntarily Thursday night, after her fifth escape from the institution Saturday.

AUTHOR DOUGLAS DIES

ISLE OF CAPRI (AP) — Norman Douglas, 83-year-old British novelist and essayist, died here today on the island he loved and helped make famous.

One of his most noted books was the novel, "South Wind," published in 1917. His writing career began with publication in 1901 of a volume called "Unprofessional Tales" and continued for 45 years.

PROMPT, COURTEOUS SERVICE WHEN IS A TOWEL UNNECESSARY?

We think a towel is unnecessary when it comes to washing mountains of dishes every day. So we have the equipment that enables us to wash everything almost surgically clean, rinse the dishes and let them dry quickly without a towel ever coming near them. Result... absolutely spotless dishes for your fine food.

Asks Disbarment Delay

WASHINGTON (AP) — Alger Hiss has asked the Supreme Court to delay disbarment proceedings against him until his appeal for a new perjury trial is heard. He is serving a five-year sentence on conviction of perjury for denying that he passed secret State Department documents to a Communist spy ring.

Burglar Strike Again In Hanoverton Area

The fourth burglary in recent months in the Hanoverton area took place at the home of Mrs. Mary Bye on the Gas Tax Rd. sometime Thursday night while she was visiting friends at Guilford Lake.

Mrs. Bye called Hanover Township Constable Roy Painter when she returned home at 7:30 a.m. Friday and discovered that the back door of the house had been broken down.

An examination of the premises revealed that a considerable amount of antique dishware, an electric toaster, a table model radio and an antique clock had been taken. Constable Painter notified the sheriff's office of the burglary.

Attorneys Claim Plea Of Insanity For Ross

CLEVELAND (AP) — Slender George Ross, on trial for his life for shooting a Cleveland policeman to death, remained in his jail cell today during a court weekend recess.

The state, says County Prosecutor Frank T. Cullinan, wants the 27-year-old ex-convict from San Francisco given the "full penalty" for shooting Patrolman Forney L. Haas Dec. 8 in a Cleveland rooming house. "Full penalty" means death in the electric chair.

Ross' attorneys claim they will prove he is psychopathic—a man trying to go through life "without brakes," and who suffered terrible family beatings as a child.

The shooting touched off a huge manhunt. Ross was finally caught near Baltimore, Md.

Delay Foreign Aid

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Foreign Affairs Committee has adopted a wait-and-see attitude on foreign aid, says Chairman Richards (D-SC). The committee will wait until after North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) meetings in London and Lisbon before starting hearings to see what sort of unity is achieved toward mutual defense.

PLUNGES TO DEATH

NEW YORK (AP) — A New York University law professor plunged four floors to his death yesterday during a conference arranging the funeral of his young daughter. The professor, Paul D. Kaufman, 53, entered the bathroom of his Brooklyn apartment as his family saw a burial date for the daughter, Marjorie, 16. His body was found in a concrete courtyard. Police said he fell for jumped.

89 YEARS AGO

ON FEBRUARY 25, 1863

President Lincoln signed the bill which provided for the organization of National Banks in order to give this country a sound banking system.

This bank was one of the first to apply for a National charter and was granted Charter No. 43. Today First National is among the first nineteen existing banks chartered by the United States Government.

Since then it has provided absolute safety for funds entrusted to it, ample loan facilities for individuals and business and every banking service that a thriving, growing community requires.
